

VEGETARIAN & VEGAN PRODUCTS for Care Homes

The number of residents requiring vegetarian and vegan options is likely to increase in the coming years as people from the 'baby boomer' generation start to enter care homes; residents may also be influenced by their children and grandchildren's tastes and attitudes. Our range makes it easy to provide nutritious, enjoyable vegan and vegetarian food, whatever your kitchen facilities and skill levels.

Supplier Stories

Linda McCartney

Linda McCartney has been supplying Brakes for over 20 years. Founder Linda McCartney believed in great-tasting, honest, meat free food: those involved in the brand today, including McCartney family members, are dedicated to sharing Linda's passion. The brand also takes social responsibility seriously: already 96.4% plastic free, they're committed to being 100% plastic free by 2021; the company has been a RSPO member since 2011 and uses only palm oil that supports certified plantations.

Quorn

Quorn has also been supplying Brakes for over 20 years. Their mission is to produce healthy protein for a healthy planet, recognising that the growing global population needs a sustainable diet that is also healthy. Quorn is the first global meat-alternative brand to achieve third party certification of its carbon footprint figures, with over 50% of products achieving the Carbon Trust Footprint.
